QUICK TIPS FOR YOU AND YOUR STUDENT

- Student Health 101 (SH101): The CU Parents Association and Wardenburg Health Center invite you to check out Student Health 101! SH101 is a FREE, electronic monthly magazine covering a variety of topics related to college student health. Sign up to receive your copies of both SH101 and the Parent Perspective (a “tailored” version for parents) by visiting http://www.studenthealth101.com/parent.html. Don’t forget to sign your student up too!
- Summer Storage: Housing and dining services’ preferred vendor for student summer storage and shipping is Collegeboxes. To find out more about their services visit www.collegeboxes.com.
- Census 2010: Please encourage your student to participate in the 2010 Census. They will actually be “counted” here in Boulder—either in the context of their dorm or their off-campus residence. Many students believe they are “counted” in the context of their permanent home address…this is not the case. Failure to participate in the census here in Boulder results in the loss of significant local federal funding. For more info visit: http://2010census.gov.
- Spring Graduation: Spring 2010 graduation information is available at www.colorado.edu/commencement. Graduating students will receive detailed information via email in the following weeks. Families of the graduates will receive an info brochure in the mail in mid-April. The web site answers questions regarding details about the ceremony, caps and gowns, announcements, disability services, parking, and other events.
- Grad Fair: The fair runs from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on 15 and 16 March in the UMC Glenn Miller Ballroom. Purchase a cap & gown, order graduation announcements, talk with the Career Services, the Alumni Association and more! Special package deals are available…get a portrait taken in cap & gown… food, prizes, and much more!
